An organization succeeds, not because it is long-established, but because there are people in it who live it, sleep it, dream it, and build future plans for it".

Trivia Question:

What if Mr. Spock was a Wood Badger?

“For a Boy Scout leader to not enlist in Wood Badge training, that would be highly illogical.”

Which Patrol would Spock belong to?

Submit your answers to the Troop 1 Scribe and we will post the best answer in an upcoming Gilwell Gazette.

Wood Badge Trivia

S3-574-15-1 Day 2 trivia answer: Hmm I wonder if I had to put Mr. Spock in a Wood Badge Patrol I would say based upon his wisdom and logic the best fit to me is the Owl Patrol - - - although with those ears he could fit in well with the Fox Patrol too. Scribe Andy T.

NOW what do you think? Send me your thoughts on this matter:

andy.tirpak@tpwd.texas.gov

Spock would have been a beaver because he is the First Officer and the Beaver are the first Wood Badge critter. Bill Glenn Beaver S3-574-15-1 - LLAP

Tools needed for second weekend service project

A list of tools that the patrols will need to complete the picnic table service projects on the second weekend of Wood Badge S3-574-15-1:

Drills, cordless or electric;
extension cords
5/16 & 3/8 in. drill bits
a saw to cut 2”X10” boards
1/2” & 9/16” wrenches or sockets and ratchet;
portable saw horses these will help with the drilling

Thanks to everyone

Things to consider for the second weekend of Wood Badge Friday March 27th - Sunday March 29th 2015

- Your Patrol meetings when, where and why.
- Your gear for the next weekend of Wood Badge - -
- WHAT YOU DO NOT HAVE borrow from a fellow critter or a friend.
- Your meals for the weekend #2 of your Gillwell Experience – camping meals which should be nutritious and capable of feeding 8 adults on Friday Lunch and Dinner, and Saturday Breakfast and Lunch.
- Chaplin Aids please be sure to be prepared for your Interfaith Service on Sunday March 29th 2015.

Hello everyone! I hope everyone is doing well while on your break between weekends. I'm sure you are busy at work and your daily lives with your families and scout packs/troops/crews or varsity's. I know you have been meeting with your Patrols and coming up with your ideas for tickets! We, the staff are also enjoying our time with our families and back at our jobs and our respective units as well. We have seen several of you at Roundtable, at your Patrol meetings or just out an about and it always with a Big SMILE!

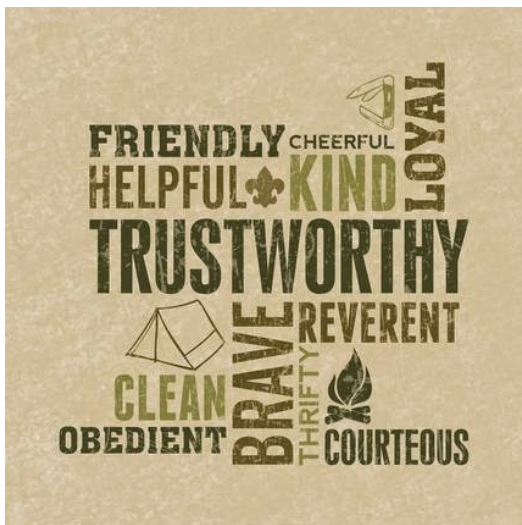

I am so happy that you have enjoyed your time so far with us at Gilwell Field. We are looking forward to seeing you again very soon and have been preparing for your return visit with us on March 27th.

Please seek out your Patrol Guide or any staff member with any questions or concerns. We are happy to help you.

Philippians 2 1 – 4

So if there is any encouragement in Christ, any comfort from love, any participation in the Spirit, any affection and sympathy, complete my joy by being of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind. Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit but in humility count others more significant than yourselves. Let each of you look not only to his own interest, but also to the interest of others.

News I have heard from our Patrols the past week:

	I heard that the Beavers were headed off to Kelly's to grab a bite of their "favorite wood" and chew things over for their "Spring Break" Patrol Meeting!
	The Eagles are soaring this week. They met first thing Monday night. Their menu is just about finalized. Their guests are going to be amazed at the gourmet meals they are making on a backpacking stove. Their project is coming along nicely. They've picked a song, and are narrowing down a skit for Friday's campfire. Best of all, they are PERFORMING well as a team.
	The bears are on the prowl. They have their presentation, skit/song, camping supplies and food all organized. They will be cooking prime rib eyes for some lucky guests. They are performing very well and are working on various ideas to enliven the second weekend. All have ticket lists that they have worked on - but I have only seen 5 completed tickets thus far. I am confident these will be complete before the next weekend.
	Just a brief note to advise all that the "herd" has been on the move this week. Great patrol meeting this past Tuesday with a very informative trip to Academy they were sure glad we visited. Quartermaster has a grip on menu and skits are looking good. Project has shape and sounds great. When they come back to the open range Cash in your chips ..the buffalos are here

If Patrol Scribes wish to send me something we shall see that the word is passed along. → andy.tirpak@tpwd.texas.gov
